The Dutch Centre is easy to reach by public transport. The closest underground stations are Bank or Liverpool Street.

From Bank station take 'exit 2', half-way up the stairs, turn right in the direction of Old Broad Street, at the top of the stairs, turn left. Stay on the left hand side of Threadneedle Street. At the fork, stay on the left entering Old Broad Street. Austin Friars is a small alley with an archway entrance, on the left just before Tesco Express.

From Liverpool Street Station, take the escalator from the mainline train terminal hall across from platform 2, to exit at McDonald's. In front of the station, on the right, is the start of Old Broad Street. Follow Old Broad Street on the right hand side about 150 metres; Austin Friars is just past the Tesco Express.
